

A TRAINING EVENT TO BUILD WORKER POWER WHERE UNIONS WERE BORN...

CAMP SOLIDARITY

CLASSES THAT WILL ENERGIZE YOU AND YOUR UNION!

- Assembling Your Dream Team
- Beating Apathy: Engaging and Activating Members
- How to Turn an Issue into a Campaign
- How to Win in Non-Collective Bargaining, Right to Work, and At-Will Environments

PLENARY PANELS TO DEEPEN OUR LABOR KNOWLEDGE, INSPIRE, AND FORGE NEW SOLIDARITIES!

- Preserving Labor Knowledge for Today's Struggles
  - Your Union and the Community
- Representation and Solidarity: Why and How We Tell Our Stories

...PLUS GROUP ACTIVITIES GROUNDED IN MATEWAN'S DEEP LABOR HISTORY

- Museum and archives tour
- Labor history walking tour of Matewan
- Live labor-themed music, bonfire, and hog roast!
- And a special closing "red bandana" ceremony

FEATURING SPEAKERS AND CLASSES BY:

Kim Kelly, author of Fight Like Hell; Maximilian Alvarez, editor of Real News Network and host of the Working People Podcast; Brandon Wolford, Mingo County, WV Educators' Association and 2018 striker; Haeden Wright, UMWA Auxiliary President Locals 2245/2368 and Jobs to Move America Organizer; Jessie Wilkerson, author of To Live Here You Have to Fight; and leaders and organizers from International Association of Firefighters, United Mine Workers of America, United Campus Workers - Communications Workers of America, Labor Notes, and many more!

OCTOBER 13-14 IN MATEWAN, WEST VIRGINIA

wvminewars.org/campsolidarity

WEST VIRGINIA
MINE WARS MUSEUM
MATEWAN, MINGO COUNTY, USA